Missing Day - Friday - 21st 2026 - time 11.45 PM

The day before Bhavya going for a Trip...

On Friday 21st 2026, the day before Bhavu going for a 11 days trip from tomorrow, n it is a special day Vara Mahalakshmi day.....,

Morning as soon as I woke up I just checked for the most valuable message I receive from Bhavuu... but instead of a Good Morning Akhil It was Good Night Akhil..... which was received at 2.55 AM, it was a bit shocking to see it..... later I got ready for office and wished Good Morning around.... 9.50 AM...but I was waiting for that one message from Bhavu to start my day.... Later I checked for the message while eating breakfast, then I reached office by 10.35 AM and received a Good Morning Msg from bhavuu n checked for the BAG... but BAG was not seen... n later around 11.30 I heard the lovely voice I was waiting for.... but since I was LOW I couldn't give the vibe... But she appeared like MAHA LAKSHMI with a bottu, Jasmin flowers, Ear rings n all looking gorgeous... then the loveliest surprise was... she getting Oobattu for me n saying I got it for u eat it... which felt lovely...

The most precious part is.... There r many people around me.... But even when I have A small slightest mood change in me, she will clearly notice it and ask what happen r u ok... which no one else around me could notice.....that feels sooo special...

Poor Bhavuuu..... I made her wait for a long time in rain.... I am really sorry for that my dear bangariiii.... Ik u can get anger on me and could have left to home saying bye.... But u waited patiently for me.... I am really grateful for the patience u show for me.... Later it was raining and we both wore the rain coats and started our ride to Yelahanka... Every time you rest your chin on my shoulder.... I feel sooo nice that I don't have words to tell that feeling, I could just feel how safe u feel with me...previous day when u was crying thinking of something.... I just saw u resting on my shoulder and your tears rolling out.... I had no words to say....I wanted to know that pain hidden in u...but I also felt u feel safe in letting ur emotions on my shoulder.... Later I also saw your mood change quickly as I started talking n giving u that vibe... u just forgot everything and reached home happily....

Coming to this day..... we went to Sankey tank.... I told u my emotional side... what iam feeling thinking about the future... at the same time I saw in your eyes... were u went speechless hearing my words ... n I feel u also felt the same like me ??? I just wanted to hug u sooo much... my brain stopped working looking at your eyes idk why, and that lovely bite from u, then i dropped u at home then u came back n we went to have PANI PURI the moments I look at u ... n ur eyes ... I just felt like I am already missing u lightly, at the same time I was happy as u r very lucky to go for trips like these with cousins. Then the time came I just dropped u back took a photo with u and saw the last glimpse of u as u entered the gate. While returning all I could feel is.... Bye bye Yelahanka... I should see u after 12 days... n I just had these questions in me... as u asked me bhavuu... future naa think madkondu present naa bidtidyalva anta... no nan present naa kuda bidtilla I admired u a lot But addu enoo gotilla mansali ondu baaraa iddange ide... coz as I said... I am an alone soul... nange yaaru istuu level ge connect aagilla... I don't show up my vonarable crying side n all to any one I am really good in hiding things, people see me...the only side which I decide to show, where they feel they know about me but nooo no one knows me better...but with u I just show it out without hiding... I just be myself and you're the only one who has seen me in my depths... soo nange yaru connect aagila soo nana bittu hoddruu nange enuu anstirlilabut neenu doora aagtiyaa anno a sentence nee nange tagolake aagilla, return barta I was just questioning myself yake nange tagolake aagilla... before yaaaarigu eetara ansilla...but eega yake eetara aagtide... okkarini love cheste illa vuntunda... 99% Tannu vuntundii naa life loo... aaa devudu maa idarini kalsee laa chesadu ante... and eevarii meeda love raakundaa vunna naakuu.. tanna meeda love putteelaa chesaduu ante tappakunda okkatigaane vuntam.. iidii okka test emoo... nan manasu stone aagide anta heltidru.. yellooo ondu hope avaraa mansali kuda nan just best friend antu alla.. I am something more... anni okka hope the intiki vachii... alla padukoni msg chesii .. dinner tinnii vache loopu bhavuu pacchondii.. soo inka eee note rastuu ... Good Night Bhavya Avare antuu ee day ne finish chesa ...

Missing Day - Saturday 22nd 2026 - time 11.30 PM

The day... bhavuu would be going for the trip

Today morning..... I woke up around 10.35AM with the Good Morning msg of my bangarii... I replied back and woke up went to freshen up and after freshening up I checked for the msgs .. but it stayed in grey tick... I ate my breakfast... n still waited for the msg.... I had a dream last night that we r going to Tirupati in my car and we r enjoying it... which I wanted to share... and kept on waiting... since you said the bus would be around 3.00 and the ticks turned blue but no reply... my heart was telling me to go to Yelahanka n meet you once... but I stopped myself saying it will not be good...

I continuously checked for msgs for every notification sounds... then just slept from 12.00 to 2.30... n then when it was 3.00 i don't know how to tell but.. I was like its time... now she will be going by bus... did she get her bus??, she would on PD this week soo did she take that cramp reliever with her... etc etc... then mom was like come we will go to doddamma home.. I went there... and I was checking up when ever the msg notification came... all I got was that dominos notification.... N then I wished saying happy and a safe journey ill be waiting for u.. (wished in my heart)... later I came back home around 8.00 and just kept my phone aside and slept till 10.00 again got up checked the phone and had dinner.... N I tried to check by unfortunately my data got over n should wait till 12.00... sooo I am writing this note of the things what I did today (since the time is 11.40 now)

And yaa I called up the sponsor... he said... his family member got admitted in hospital. He couldn't meet me today... he will be available on Monday....

Finally, 12.00 has come but still the ticks are grey..... then I had a feeling like after we both met this is the first time the day just finished without talking to you...

Saying to myself no don't worry just somehow, I am writing it down...in this note....

That's it.... Just waiting for my bangarii by just looking at the photos...

I might sound silly and I don't know how much irritated u get reading these, but this is what I am feeling at this moment...

11 more days to go,.....

Soooo Good Night Bangariiii and mansali helkoltaa ee day naa mugsde,, Today I woke up around 8.30 AM and checked for the message but... nothing was seen soooo I wished Good Morning Bangarii in my heart and went to freshen up, after freshening up I checked once again and started to see reels in Instagram while having Breakfast... Later I reached office around 10:55 AM and as soon I entered second floor automatically I looked at the place where u keep your bag and realized u didn't come anta. Then I checked the ITBA and just sat to read my python notes. Then Sir came around 12.30 and gave me some work, I was doing that then has I was in that work I didn't see the time. When I saw the time it was 2:45 and still I didn't have lunch. I really missed the Call coming from u at exactly 1.45... "Akhil banni uta madanna". I missed it ... then I just sat alone and had my lunch around 3.00.... felt alone with that missing feels...

And most surprising thing is Eshwar sir would come n talk to us when we r having lunch right. Now even Eshwar sir didn't come. It felt like my olden days... those alone days... where no one use to ask me anything and where I used to be alone... some how by seeing some funny videos in youtube I had my lunch... hoping that u r also eating on time anta...

Yentoooo eerojuuuu naaku office kottaga vunindiii... Office looo aaa charm ledanpinchindi naaku... Yaaa obviously miss avtunna ninnu... but at the same time... Missing Day - Tuesday 01th 2026 – time 11.30 PM

Sooo finally the last day has arrived...

Today I woke up around 8.30... idk y I had body pains n all, n I was feeling like "em veltav office ke... but still my heart was excited that tomorrow I will see bhavuu annii.. inka 26 hours are left to see bhavuu anni. Then checked for ur msgs.. then went to freshen up and some how kastamgaa ready ayyi... neeku good morning msg pettii... then I had breakfast and went to office...

Inka as usual I sat and revised python n while revising I saw Soumya akka crying while she was telling some thing to suma akka.... Sooo I was not able to concentrate.. coz I cant see people around me cry..

Then I just went n sat inside... n started seeing reels n got damn boored soo just started to talk to myself.. then came out n did some reports n all n it was almost 2.00... inka kurchoni.. okkadine songs vintuu had lunch.. n then sir came around 3.00 but still I was free.. soo saw a movie... and sir called me around 5.45 and gave some work n it went on till 7.30... then I left office n while I just saw a couple in bike.. that girl was hugging him and keeping her chin on his shoulder n talking to him.. with a wildcraft bag on her back.. by seeing that.. I felt okka ammaii entaa comfortable n safe feel avtunte alla hug cheskuntunde okka abbaai nee anni...

Then I just stopped aside n sat in a bus stop in Indiranagar... then I came home around 9.50 then had dinner.... N I just cleaned all my car collections and now typing todays updates in this report...

In this one and half week... I just saw many things in me... I just experienced lot of stuff... It was like a roller-coaster ride for me... I just experienced different kinds of feels... some r new for me, some r like questions for me.. where I don't have answers...

Sooo mainly you have no idea how much I missed you... it felt soo strange not having u around, not talking to u, not knowing what you were doing, and not having those random conversations that some how made my day better... since literally it was like a switch off mode, and nennu iddii eevuarkee cheppukolenuu kuda... mansuloo challa miss avtu... brain loo nee memories run avtuu vunna... bytake matram nen normal gaa vunnatu smile chestuu natinchadam was a big task for me...

Over all I just saw the difference like.... Before I was alone... eevuarne patinchukunee vadini kadhu.. nenn aayindii na lokam ayindii annelaa okka booring normal life ---to --to Nuvu entry icchaka.. as I said plain paper nee colourful chesinatuu, naaloo happyness nee baitake techii.. nenu safe gaa feel aayii.. open up aayiii.. life nee beautiful and colourfull gaa chupistuuuu -to -to Malli eee absence loo I became alone.. like my past time... but this time it was difficult for me.... Coz after feeling like home.... Without that home... it was like... eedainaa cheppukovalii antee..(absence), eedaina eedaina matladalii antee...(absence), eekadikaynaa vellalii antee.. (absence), safe gaa reach aayava, tinnava, or nen low gaa vunnapudu... aadi artam cheskoni aadige...(absence)... Ellaa anniii chusiii

Your abence made me realize just how much of a beautiful part of my life you are.... my alone life inta worst gaa vuntundaa without you anni... As u said on my birthday... u just make my life brighter just by being there...

Nan darkness alli idagaa.. deepa idkonduuu nan life alli belaku tandee neenu... aa belakallii nina noddide... coz you're one of those rarest people who can make me laugh when I don't feel like smiling, listening to me without judging me and making ordinary moments feel special with ur presence out of love.

Love is such a beautiful and blessed feeling one can get and one can experience....

And yaaaaaa I really hope that u had lot of fun.... And u r stepping into Bangalore with a refreshed mind anta..
